Unit 5 • Session 1
Bread from Heaven

BIBLE STORY SUMMARY:

- The Israelites complained about needing food and water.
- God provided water from a rock to drink, and He sent quail and manna to feed His people.
- God provided for the physical needs of His people.
- God told the people to gather only the manna they needed for the day.

KEY PASSAGE: Matthew 22:37-39

BIG PICTURE QUESTION:

- What is God like? God is holy, good, and loving.

FAMILY DISCUSSION STARTERS:

- Why did the people complain? What did it show about their trust in God?
- Why did God give rules about gathering manna?
- What are ways we can learn to trust God more each day?

FAMILY ACTIVITY:

- Find a recipe and prepare a meal using quail or another game bird. Let your kids help with the cooking tasks. As you eat, discuss how God's people may have felt when God sent quail into their camp to eat.
